Covering Endocrinology, Neurology, Respiratory & Cardiology Including ECG interpretations

Physical Health Skills Training for Psychiatrists

Wednesday 11th December 2019 – Leeds

Medical Education Centre, Beckett Wing, St James Hospital, Leeds

Launching the first physical health skills training days for senior psychiatrists delivered using state of the art technology and facilities. Get up-to-date and ahead of the game with the latest educational techniques.

This course has been specially designed by a team of expert educationalists including psychiatrists and physicians and is a must for all practicing psychiatrists. It recognises your need, especially in the context of annual appraisal and revalidation, to keep up to date in physical health assessment skills. The course builds up from targeted systems examinations, covering ECG interpretation, through to the acute recognition and management of physical health conditions relevant to the mental health setting. The day covers a variety of medical conditions including Endocrine, Neurology and Respiratory and Cardiology. The scenarios will use a range of approaches including actors and high fidelity simulation - all delivered in a relaxed and supportive learning environment.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course you will have:

- refreshed your practical physical health skills – assessment and front line management
- practiced your skills in a safe and supported environment
- Revisited basic targeted systems examination relevant to the psychiatrist
- obtained important portfolio evidence for revalidation/appraisal to enable you to demonstrate holistic health care skills and abilities in line with 'Good Medical / Psychiatric Practice'
- updated knowledge of the current physical health skills agenda
- used state of the art, high fidelity teaching and learning aids
- improved your ability to gain advice from and know when to refer to your medical health colleagues
- experienced simulation as a new method of teaching / learning
- greater appreciation of the current learning techniques experienced by your trainees
